

MICHIGAN ASSOCIATION OF RAILROAD PASSENGERS
44th ANNUAL MEETING

O'Kelly Banquet Hall, 23663 Park St, Dearborn MI 48124
2 December 2017 10:00 am – 2:00 pm

KEYNOTE SPEAKER
Rick Harnish

“A Bright Future for Passenger Trains in the Midwest”

Make plans now to attend! This will be a joint meeting with the Midwest High Speed Rail Association, whose executive director, Rick Harnish, will speak about exciting developments that will create a strengthened and expanded passenger train network throughout the Midwest over the next four decades.

MARP will honor John DeLora for his dedicated work over many years to improve Michigan train services and conditions for passengers. John founded MARP in 1973 and served as Chair for many years. He is also a 48 year member of the National Association of Railroad Passengers and served 15 years as Vice-President before his retirement in January this year.

The cost to attend is $25 per person and includes a catered luncheon. The registration deadline is November 24.
